[THE METHODS OF MAYHEM!]

Each character has his or her own arsenal of special moves and attacks. Many of these attacks require a weapon, so keep a grip on your sword at all times! (For a complete list of the METHODS OF MAYHEM, consult the CHARACTER DESCRIPTION section.)

THE TALONED FIEND GENAN SHIRANUI

Elite warrior of the infamous Doon Three Blood tribe. He is known for shredding his victims with his clawed hands. Although battling to prove himself as the King of the Magic Minions, he has a weak spot for children, especially marinated in... Well, let's just leave it at that.

THE WAY OF THE SWORD

THE SWORD IS THE LIFE OF THE SAMURAI!
(A bowl of rice does wonders, too!)

To survive your battles, you must master the way of the blade. Speed is what counts in improving your attacks and gaining an edge (giggle, giggle) over your opponents.

[LOCKING SWORDS]

When your character locks swords with his opponent, punch that A Button repeatedly as if your life depends on it, because it does!

[LOSING YOUR WEAPON]

After you recover from the shame of being disarmed, get off your backside and get that sword! Fight your way to your weapon and press the A Button to get it back. Needless to say, you shouldn't have lost it in the first place, you son of a peasant farmer's peasant!

[THE "NO PAIN, NO PAIN" SPRINT]

Stop your opponents sword attack by rushing into your opponent's chest. A great way to foil your adversaries and a great topic for stories at boring cocktail parties.

Note: Your sword has certain limits of durability. If you exceed these limits, your sword will shatter like a beer bottle on a drunken cowboy's head in a third-rate western. However, at the end of each round your sword will be restored, unlike the bottle in the cowboy movies.

DUELLING

Each match consists of two duels. The first player to win two duels proceeds on to the next opponent. In the case where there is no winner, the judge will decide the victor.

Determining the Winner—A few words from Slick Sukihiro, Judge of Duels in SAMURAI SHODOWN.

Thank you for that wonderful introduction. Here's the scoop:

- ◆ Lose all of your power, and you die. You also lose.
- ◆ If the battle is not decided within the given time limit, the competitor with the most life remaining wins. The other guy loses.
- ◆ A tie will result if none of the above conditions are met.
- ◆ If a victor is still unchosen after 3 rounds, a fourth round will be conducted. The result of this battle will determine the winner.

Nice talking to all you Samurai and Samurettes!

BONUS STAGES

As you proceed through the game, Bonus Stages will appear. From various places (indicated by the arrow cursor), straw dummies will periodically appear (unlike life, where real dummies always appear). Position your character carefully and plan your slices to the closest fraction of a second to cut these dummies and rack up those points (The dummies in the game that is, not the ones in real life)

THE INCAN AVENGER

TAM TAM

A kind man devoted to a cruel way of life. TAM TAM seeks the lost Incan Parent Stone, which protects the life and welfare of his beloved village. Like GENAN, he is particularly fond of children, but does not go so far as to maimate ... well, you get the idea.

ROUND BONUSES

Bonus points are determined by the amount of time, life, and attack power of your character remaining after each battle.

- POWER.....The more power remaining, the more points you will receive.
- TIME.....Bonus points are determined by the remaining time multiplied by 100.
- ATTACK POWER.....Get out your calculators! This bonus is determined as indicated below.

Number of Times Attacked ÷ Number of Attacks

After your character wins a duel, sometimes money flies out of your opponents pockets, this too is included in the bonus.

2-PLAYER COMPETITION

To start 2-Player Competitive Play, simply press the start button on the unused controller. A second player may also enter the challenge during regular computer play in the same manner.

RESURRECTION--CONTINUE PLAY

After being defeated, the continue count will begin. Push the start button before the count reaches zero to continue play. You can continue play up to three times. With two player competitions, if the countdown reaches zero for the losing player, the action will revert to computer play for the victor.

ITEMS

During your matches, the Edo Express Delivery Man will appear. Probably the worst courier in the business, he is notorious for dropping--at times lobbing--his parcels into the way of the duel contestants. Some of these items, such as coins or food, will add points to your score or add power to your life meter. At other times, the courier will drop explosives, and these you will want to avoid.

(POWER ITEMS)
MEAT, Meat, and meat. Based on the size of your portion, you can revitalize your power meter.

(BONUS ITEMS)
Cash boxes, gold coins, small change. Based on the item, appropriate bonus points will be calculated.

(OUCH ITEMS)
Explosives. If one of these babies gets in your way, get the heck out of there! If you can't escape, use the GUARD command to avoid taking damage.

THE RAGE GAUGE

As you receive various blows, your RAGE GAUGE, located in the lower half of the screen, will increase. When it begins to flash, your character will anger, reaching full power. At this time, your attacks and METHODS OF MAYHEM will be at their deadliest. On the other hand, during this time, if your character is attacked, the damage he receives will be proportionally larger too. So, if you happen to get angry, remember to stay cool. ☺ The rate at which the RAGE GAUGE rises varies with each character. ☺ The RAGE GAUGE will continue for a limited time in the subsequent round. Bonus, eh!
